CAUSE

In March of 2009, the undersigned officer wrote a probation form 12A regarding Mr. Britton to Your Honor notifying the court of a pornography violation. Britton was not sanctioned due to this violation, but he did submit a letter to the court accepting responsibility for his actions, while at the same time making a commitment to remain compliant. Britton has experienced a more intensive level of sex offender treatment since this time.

Unfortunately, the officer discovered pornography on Mr. Britton's computer again on December 13, 2019. The officer discovered an open tab on his home screen for a pornographic website called watchersweb.com. Britton adamantly insisted that he did not view the pornography and was unaware how it got onto his computer.

Britton continued with these claims as the device was sent off to a forensic laboratory for analysis. Mr. Britton was subjected to a polygraph examination on February 10, 2020. Mr. Britton accepted responsibility for the pornography but claimed that he did not remember visiting the website that was found on his home page. Forensic results are still pending.

The probation officer finds it appropriate to sanction Mr. Britton for his actions. He has agreed to a modification for 45 days of home confinement with location monitoring. It is respectfully requested to allow the probation office to have the discretion to determine the appropriate type of electronic equipment based the individual needs of Mr. Britton. The probation form 49, waiver of hearing, is attached for Your Honor's review.

Respectfully submitted,
